Gulet Queen of Adriatic is a beautiful sailing boat available for yacht charter in Croatia since 2008. Measuring 27 meters in length, it reflects traditional gulet outlines with contemporary design standards, enabling its guests to enjoy their sailing vacation to the fullest. Queen of the Adriatic has 6 spacious cabins, 4 double cabins and 2 cabins with an additional bedding arrangement, suitable for up to 12 charter guests. All cabins are air conditioned with mahogany paneling and private lavatory facilities, offering a highly comfortable accommodation during your cruise. The main salon features a bar and a dining area, complimented with additional entertainment possibilities such as TV, CD player and DVD player. Vast exterior spaces offer plenty of choice for outdoor activities; spacious teak decks are perfect for sunbathing whereas a covered aft deck with a lovely dining area provide an ideal setting for relishing delectable culinary creations prepared by a professional chef on board. Queen of the Adriatic also enables its guests to engage in various sports activities such as jet skiing, fishing, snorkeling and canoeing, transforming your holiday in an active sailing adventure. Cruising aboard gulet Queen of the Adriatic gives you the possibility to choose among several sailing itineraries which include some of the most amazing destinations of the Adriatic coastline. Chartering a gulet like this one is a perfect opportunity to explore antique cities such as Split, Dubrovnik and Sibenik, brimming with historical and cultural monuments or discover secluded beaches and bays of many alluring islands like Vis, Mali Losinj or Kornati islands. Gulet Queen of the Adriatic enchants its guests with a distinguished style and comfort, crew's hospitality and an easy access to Croatia's most breathtaking destinations, establishing a new definition of a perfect sailing holiday.
